Slimline design without an extra charge

The reduced thickness of 25 mm lends a slimline, elegant appearance to kitchens. It appears more contemporary than the classic 40 mm boards and fits in perfectly with minimalist kitchen styles, handleless fronts, and open room concepts.

What's particularly pleasing is that you get the 25 mm worktop at the same price as the 40 mm worktop – without compromising on quality or design. This enables you to add modern highlights while remaining within your budget.
